SharQui - The bellydance workout® has enjoyed nationwide and global success by teaching the easy-to-follow, fun foundations of traditional bellydance. The company, which offers their dance fitness workout in California, New York, Chicago, London, Australia, Trinidad, Tokyo and Philadelphia is continually offering classes in new cites across the globe.

About SharQui – The Bellydance Workout®

SharQui teaches the true form of belly dance through fun and simple-to-perform movements while getting a total body workout. There is no other fitness program like SharQui in the entire world.

SharQui strives to show women that bellydance is about much more than fitness. As opposed to a strictly exercise-focused routine, the SharQui also serves as a celebration of women's bodies and overall well-being. During the hour-long workout, women learn one, long choreography of movements to ensure success and confidence for everyone.
